YM TROPHY IS GIVEN EACH SEMESTER

Campus Club, Now Merged With Sig Eps, Was Highest

Phi Sigma Kappa, with an average scholast of 1.681, won the silver cup awarded by the University Y. M. C. A. to the fra-ternity making the highest standlng for the semester. Campus club made a standing of 1.721, but since it was absorbed by Sigma Beta Xi, February, 1933, it is non-existent the second semester.

This scholarship trophy is awarded each semester to the fraternity of first rank, and the fraternity which wins it three times consecutively, or five times non-consecutively, will receive it as a permanent possession. Last spring semester the trophy was won by Delta Chl who ranked next to Phi Sigma Kappa this time with a standing of 1.536.

The average standing of men ln social fraternitles was 1.352, while that of non-faternity men was 1.262. There were 1,758 men stu-dents regularly enrolled the first semester, and of this number, 345 were fraternity men. This is a percentage of 19.6 men in social fraterhitles. The average stand-lng for all students was 1.378, and for all men students, 1,282.

The following is a list of the fraternitics and standings for the first semester 1932-1933:

HONESTY—A DECEPTION About the time that the pinched

midriffs of the Floradora Sextette were aeclaimed tite 'ultimate in feminine pulchritude-back in the dear, dead days of the early nineteen hundreds-the face of a crook was, in fact, his fortune.

If he happened to be endowed by nature with an open and engaging countenance, he could live Indefinitely by his wits-provided he was reasonably lucky and didn't visit the same university twice. For universities, with lhelr openhanded fashion for exchanging education for paper documents, which in banking circles are known as checks, have long been vulnerable as points of attack for bad check artists and persons of similar predatory habits.

If you are an average individual you are doubtless averagely honest It is doubtful that you are entirely honest. You probably have lied to your sweetheart, if there are such things, or, in all likelihood, have cheated on examinations; but that is no pardonable reason why you should give the registrar a worthless check for your registration fee.

Losses through bad checks become a part of the university's overhead, and overhead expenses must be borne partly by the charges which it makes for tuition. Of course the University may withhold the student's credits and deny him the privilege of being graduated until his delinquency has been stricken from the registrar's records; but that is not a solution of the immediate financia! problems of the University. The student may cease matriculating and leave the campus without making good his worthiess check which he gave for tuition. However, the student may have the intention of paying the debt within a year or two; but the University in turn suffers the immediate loss of that student's tuition which would go toward meeting the financial expenditures of the institution. Such financial trickery cannot be borne by the University Indefinitely. Something has to be done about it.

We hope that what has been said will not be construed as pessimistic. While there is no such thing as an honest face, there is certainly such a thing as honesty. This may be lerences, conduct discussion groups due to the general economic conditton of the country, but we preler to think that It owes Itself anclier factor-the prevalence of dishonesty among students who want something for nothing life go riding by? Life loitering among green pastures, spiashing across still waters, plunging bravely into wiiderness unafraid, pass-ing through Sheol of war, and unconquerably climbing rough road up the years of eternity, presently finding heaven in unbeileveable hell. Of such is the new English picture "Cavalcade," showng at the Kentucky theater. Here is the cavalcade of life that is rid-ing by. In its train, swept irresistably along, is an English lord and his lady, played by Clive Brook and Diana Wynyard. "Cavalcade," is not a picture that one may put in a cubby-hole and have done with it. One must see to determine its worth to himself as an individual. Lloyd Bucon is to be congratulated on his exceilent direction of the pleture. Unusually good photogra-phy is to be found in the portrayal of World War scenes.

B. P. Schulberg, producer for Paramount of "Pick Up," the Vina Delmar romance Sylvia Sidney and George Ralt at the Strand theater, casts his pictures down the line from writers and players through directors and cameramen. He in-sists that each person involved have the same "type" sympathy for the story. That's why he chose Marion Gering to direct, David Abel to photograph. S. K. Lauren, Agnes Brand Leaby, and Daniel N. Rubin to adapt, and Sylvia Sidney and George Raft to play in "Pick Up."

4. Thirty or more students walked out when it was announeed that each Junior would stand and vote, which shows that many people came to the meeting under assumed names.

5. The time of the closing of the door was not published, which was my fault.

6. The door was closed earlier than usual and several juniors were dealed the privilege of voting because they were a minute or so late.

Under the present conditions with the present feeling existing, and with the methods used by the co-called campus politicians, I feel that it is impossible to hold a fair and honest election. Knowing that the above conditions ex-I, Horace Helm, president of the Junior class, hereby ask the Board of Publications to select, as editor of the Kentuckian for the coming year, one of the two candidates, Mr. Palmer or Mr. Vogel. whittled FOR you. Granger Rough Cut is tobacco whittled right . . . that's one reason why it burns so slow and cool.

V/HEN we started to make Granger Rough Cut we knew that fine tobacco burnt hot because it burnt so fast. It kept your pipe hot. You could hardly hold your pipe in your hand, it got so hot at times.

back yonder used to "whittle" their tobacco. So we made GRANGER just like "whittle" tobacco - "Rough Cut." It smokes cooler and lasts a lot longer. And also, you'll find it never gums the pipe.

this tobacco for 10c. Good tobacco-right process—cut right. It was a question of how to do it for the price.

So we put GRANGER in a sensible soft foil pouch instead of an expensive package, knowing that a man can't smoke a package. We gave smokers this good GRANGER tobacco in a common-sense pouch for 10c.

GRANGER has not been on sale very long, but it has grown to be a popular smoke. And there is this much about it -we have yet to know, of a man who started to smoke it, who didn't keep on.
